Introduction

Lumen Technologies, Inc. (“Lumen” or the “Company”) is pleased to provide you with this supplement to your Certificate of Accident Insurance (“Certificate of Coverage”) and the Certificate of Accident Insurance (the “Plan”), collectively referred to as this Summary Plan Description (this “SPD”). The Accident Insurance benefits provided under the Plan is a benefit option under the Lumen Welfare Benefits Plan (the “Welfare Benefits Plan”).

This SPD, together with other plan documents (such as applicable provisions of the Welfare Benefits Plan, summaries of material modifications (“SMMs”), amendments and Summaries of Benefits Coverage, and materials you receive at Annual Enrollment) are collectively referred to as, and constitute, the official “Plan Document” and describe your eligibility, benefits and rights and responsibilities under the Plan. The Plan is an insured benefit provided by Metropolitan Life Insurance Company (“MetLife”). This Welfare Benefits Plan is a welfare benefits plan subject to and covered by the federal law known as the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (“ERISA”).

This SPD is expressly made part of the Plan and is legally enforceable as part of the Plan with respect to its terms and conditions. This document shall serve as a Summary Plan Description and shall also constitute the Plan.

This is an important document

This SPD explains how the Plan works and describes your Accident Insurance benefits and rights as well as your obligations under the Plan (and as applicable the Welfare Benefits Plan). All of the specific rules governing the Plan are contained in the Plan Document. You, your dependents and beneficiaries, and your lawyer (or other legal representative) may examine the Plan Document and other documents relating to the Plan during regular business hours, or by appointment at a mutually convenient time in the office of the Plan Administrator.

We encourage you to read this SPD in its entirety. Many sections of this SPD are related to other sections of the document. Thus, you may not have all of the information you need by reading just one section.

You should retain this SPD and all SPDs, plus any attachments (for example SMMs, amendments, Summaries of Benefits Coverage, Annual Enrollment Guides and addendums) in a safe place for future reference. If you have questions after reading this SPD or other documents, please contact the Claims Administrator or the Plan Administrator (see contact information below).

For questions about the Plan, you can also call the Lumen Health and Life Service Center at 833-925-0487 or 317-671-8494 (International callers). You can go online to lumen.com/healthandlife (if actively working) or lumen.com/healthbenefits to obtain an electronic copy of this SPD or you can call the Lumen Health and Life Service Center.

Company’s reserved rights

The Company reserves the right to amend or terminate the Welfare Benefits Plan and all or any of the benefits available under the Welfare Benefits Plan, including the Accident Insurance benefits provided under the Plan, with respect to all participant classes, retired or otherwise without prior notice to or consultation with any participant, subject to applicable laws and collective bargaining agreements.

Benefits are explained in this SPD

The Plan provides Accident Insurance benefits as described in the Certificate of Coverage that follows in this SPD for non-union and union represented employees who elect to enroll in the Plan. This SPD provides information about the Plan, including, but not limited to, the following:

- Eligibility.
- When coverage begins and ends.
- Questions, complaints, how to appeal a claim.
- The Plan's right to restitution.
- Plan information.
- A statement of your ERISA rights.

Eligibility for insurance and description of benefits

The Certificate of Coverage below describes the eligibility requirements for benefits insured by MetLife under the Plan. It also includes a detailed description of the terms of the insurance coverage provided by MetLife under the Plan and the maximum benefits that can be paid.

Contributions and funding

Participants pay the entire cost of the Plan coverage. No portion of the Plan is paid by Lumen. The Plan benefits are fully insured and paid by MetLife.

While on an unpaid leave of absence, you will be direct billed for the cost of the coverage. Failure to pay the coverage cost when due will result in the cancellation of your coverage in the Plan. If you have questions regarding your benefits under the Plan or direct billing, please contact the Lumen Health and Life Service Center at 833-925-0487 or 317-671-8494 (International callers).

Inform the Plan of changes

You must notify the Plan of a change in your address and/or telephone number as well as notifying the Plan of other changes to your name and/or marital status. To do this, you must contact the Lumen Health and Life Service Center.

A word about your privacy

In determining benefits and eligibility, the Plan will use confidential or personal health information. Please keep in mind it is very important for you to follow the Plan's procedures, as summarized in this SPD, in order to obtain Plan benefits and to help keep your personal health information private and protected. For example, contacting someone at the Company other than the Claims Administrator or Plan Administrator (or their duly authorized delegates), in order to try to get a benefit claim issue resolved, is not following the Plan's procedures. If you do not follow the Plan's procedures for claiming a benefit or resolving an issue involving Plan benefits, there is no guarantee the Plan benefits for which you may be eligible will be paid to you on a timely basis, or paid at all, and there can be no guarantee that your personal health information will remain private and protected.

Health plan coverage is not health care advice

Please keep in mind that the sole purpose of the Plan is to provide payment of certain Accident Insurance expenses and not to guide or direct the course of treatment of any employee or eligible dependent. Just because your health care provider recommends a course of treatment does not mean it is approved and payable under the Plan. A determination by the Claims Administrator or the Plan Administrator that a particular course of treatment is not eligible for payment or is not covered under the Plan does not mean that the recommended course of treatments, services or procedures should not be provided to the individual or that they should not be provided in the setting or facility proposed. Only you and your health care provider can decide what is the right health care decision for you. Decisions by the Claims Administrator or the Plan Administrator are solely decisions with respect to Plan coverage and do not constitute health care recommendations or advice.

Lumen's right to use your Social Security number for administration of benefits

Lumen retains the right to use your Social Security number for benefit administration purposes, including tax reporting. If a state law restricts the use of Social Security numbers for benefit administration purposes, Lumen generally takes the position that ERISA preempts such state laws.

No conversion rights when coverage ends

There are no individual conversion rights to this insurance benefit after the coverage ends.

Plan fiduciary

The ERISA “named fiduciary” of the Welfare Benefits Plan is the Lumen Employee Benefits Committee. The Company has designated the Claims Administrator - the insurer, MetLife - as the ERISA “claims fiduciary” for purposes of all claims arising under the Plan.

Circumstances that may affect your Plan benefits

Under certain circumstances all or a portion of your benefits under the Plan may be denied, reduced, suspended, terminated or otherwise affected. These circumstances are addressed in this SPD and includes:

- The Plan is changed, amended or terminated or the contract with MetLife amended or terminated.
- You attain the maximum benefit available under the Plan.
- You misrepresent or falsify any information required under the Plan; you will not be permitted to benefit under the Plan from your own misrepresentation.
- You have been overpaid a benefit and the Plan seeks recovery of the overpayment.
- Your coverage under the Plan is terminated for one of a variety of reasons, for example, failure to submit required documentation timely or, if applicable, to pay a premium.

Claims and appeals for benefits and time limitation on civil actions

You should refer to “Claims Information” in the “ERISA Information” section at the end of the Certificate of Coverage to understand how to file a claim for benefits and, if denied all and part, how to appeal that denial. You cannot bring any legal proceeding or action against the Plan, the Plan Administrator, Claims Administrator or the Company unless you first complete all the administrative claims and appeals requirements.

You cannot bring any legal proceedings or action against the Plan, the Claims Administrator or the Plan Administrator (or Lumen) until you have exhausted the claims and appeal administrative remedies described in “Claims Information” in the “ERISA Information” section at the end of the Certificate of Coverage. Once you have exhausted the administrative remedies, you can bring any legal proceedings or action within 12 months or 1 year of the date the Claims Administrator notified you of the final decision on your appeal, unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Coverage below. No person has the right to file a civil action, proceeding or lawsuit against the Plan or any person acting with respect to the Plan, including, but not limited to, the Company, any participating company, the Lumen Employee Benefits Committee or any other fiduciary, or any third party service provider, after the last day of the 12th month following the later of (a) the 60th day after receipt by the claimant of written notification of the adverse benefit determination on appeal or (b) the date on which the adverse benefit determination on appeal was issued with respect to such Plan benefit claim.

Clerical error

If a clerical error or other mistake occurs, however occurring, that error does not create a right to benefits. Clerical errors include, but are not limited to, providing misinformation on eligibility or benefit coverages or entitlements or relating to information transmittal and/or communications, perfunctory or ministerial in nature, involving claims processing or recordkeeping. Although every effort is and will be made to administer the Plan in a fully accurate manner, any inadvertent error, misstatement or omission will be disregarded and the actual Plan provisions will be controlling. A clerical error will not void coverage to which a participant is entitled under the terms of the Plan, nor will it continue coverage that should have ended under the terms of the Plan. When an error is found, it will be corrected or adjusted appropriately as soon as practicable. Interest shall not be payable with respect to a benefit corrected or adjusted. It is your responsibility to confirm the accuracy of statements made by the Plan or our designees, including the Claims Administrator(s), in accordance with the terms of this SPD and other Plan documents.

Records and information and your obligation to furnish information

At times, the Plan, the Claims Administrator or the Plans Administrator may need information from you. You agree to furnish the Plan, the Claims Administrator and/or the Plan Administrator with all information and proofs that are reasonably required regarding any matters pertaining to the Plan. If you do not provide this information when requested, it may delay or result in the denial of your claim.

By accepting benefits under the Plan, you authorize and direct any person that has provided services to you, to furnish the Plan or the Claims Administrator with all information or copies of records relating to the services provided to you. The Plan or the Claims Administrator has the right to request this information at any reasonable time. This applies to all Participants.

The Plan agrees that such information and records will be considered confidential. The Company and the Claims Administrator and the Plan Administrator have the right to release any and all records which are necessary to implement and administer the terms of the Plans, for appropriate medical review or quality assessment, or as we are required by law or regulation.

Interpretation of the Plan

The Plan Administrator has delegated to the Claims Administrator, MetLife, its discretionary authority to make all final determinations regarding claims and appeals for benefits under the Plan. This discretionary authority includes, but is not limited to, the determination of eligibility for benefits, based upon enrollment information, and the amount of any benefits due, and to construe the terms of the policy insuring the benefits for the Plan.

Any decision made by the Claims Administrator in the exercise of this authority, including review of denials of benefit, is conclusive and binding on all parties. Any court reviewing the Claims Administrator's determinations shall uphold such determination unless the claimant proves the determinations are arbitrary and capricious.

CLAIMS INFORMATION

Accident Insurance Benefits Claims

Routine Questions

If there is any question about a claim payment, an explanation may be requested from MetLife which is able to provide the necessary information.

Claim Submission

For claims for Accident Insurance benefits, the claimant must report the claim to MetLife and, if requested by MetLife, complete the appropriate claim form. Claim forms requested by MetLife must be submitted in accordance with the instructions on the claim form.

Initial Determination

After you submit a claim for Accident Insurance benefits to MetLife, MetLife will review your claim and notify you of its decision to approve or deny your claim.

Such notification will be provided to you within a reasonable period, not to exceed 45 days from the date you submitted your claim; except for situations requiring an extension of time because of matters beyond the control of the Plan, in which case MetLife may have up to two (2) additional extensions of 30 days each to provide you such notification. If MetLife needs an extension, it will notify you prior to the expiration of the initial 45 day period (or prior to the expiration of the first 30 day extension period if a second 30 day extension period is needed), state the reason why the extension is needed, and state when it will make its determination. If an extension is needed because you did not provide sufficient information or filed an incomplete claim, the time from the date of MetLife's notice requesting further information and an extension until MetLife receives the requested information does not count toward the time period MetLife is allowed to notify you as to its claim decision. You will have 45 days to provide the requested information from the date you receive the extension notice requesting further information from MetLife.

If MetLife denies your claim in whole or in part, the notification of the claims decision will state the reason why your claim was denied and reference the specific Plan provision(s) on which the denial is based. If the claim is denied because MetLife did not receive sufficient information, the claims decision will describe the additional information needed and explain why such information is needed. Further, if an internal rule, protocol, guideline or other criteria was relied upon in making the denial, the claims decision will state the rule, protocol, guideline or other criteria or indicate that such rule, protocol, guideline or other criteria was relied upon and that you may request a copy free of charge.

Appealing the Initial Determination

If MetLife denies your claim, you may appeal the decision. Upon your written request, MetLife will provide you free of charge with copies of documents, records and other information relevant to your claim. You must submit your appeal to MetLife at the address indicated on the claim form within 180 days of receiving MetLife's decision. Appeals must be in writing and must include at least the following information:

- Name of Employee
- Name of the Plan
- Reference to the initial decision
- An explanation why you are appealing the initial determination

As part of your appeal, you may submit any written comments, documents, records, or other information relating to your claim.

After MetLife receives your written request appealing the initial determination, MetLife will conduct a full and fair review of your claim. Deference will not be given to the initial denial, and MetLife's review will look at the claim anew. The review on appeal will take into account all comments, documents, records, and other information that you submit relating to your claim without regard to whether such information was submitted or considered in the initial determination. The person who will review your appeal will not be the same person as the person who made the initial decision to deny your claim. In addition, the person who is reviewing the appeal will not be a subordinate of the person who made the initial decision to deny your claim. If the initial denial is based in whole or in part on a medical judgment, MetLife will consult with a health care professional with appropriate training and experience in the field of medicine involved in the medical judgment. This health care professional will not have consulted on the initial determination, and will not be a subordinate of any person who was consulted on the initial determination.

MetLife will notify you in writing of its final decision within a reasonable period of time, but no later than 45 days after MetLife's receipt of your written request for review, except that under special circumstances MetLife may have up to an additional 45 days to provide written notification of the final decision. If such an extension is required, MetLife will notify you prior to the expiration of the initial 45 day period, state the reason(s) why such an extension is needed, and state when it will make its determination. If an extension is needed because you did not provide sufficient information, the time period from MetLife's notice to you of the need for an extension to when MetLife receives the requested information does not count toward the time MetLife is allowed to notify you of its final decision. You will have 45 days to provide the requested information from the date you receive the notice from MetLife.

If MetLife denies the claim on appeal, MetLife will send you a final written decision that states the reason(s) why the claim you appealed is being denied and references any specific Plan provision(s) on which the denial is based. If an internal rule, protocol, guideline or other criteria was relied upon in denying the claim on appeal, the final written decision will state the rule, protocol, guideline or other criteria or indicate that such rule, protocol, guideline or other criteria was relied upon and that you may request a copy free of charge. Upon written request, MetLife will provide you free of charge with copies of documents, records and other information relevant to your claim.

Discretionary Authority of Plan Administrator and Other Plan Fiduciaries

In carrying out their respective responsibilities under the Plan, the Plan administrator and other Plan fiduciaries shall have discretionary authority to interpret the terms of the Plan and to determine eligibility for and entitlement to Plan benefits in accordance with the terms of the Plan. Any interpretation or determination made pursuant to such discretionary authority shall be given full force and effect, unless it can be shown that the interpretation or determination was arbitrary and capricious.

STATEMENT OF ERISA RIGHTS

The following statement is required by federal law and regulation.

As a participant in the Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all participants shall be entitled to:

Receive Information About Your Plan and Benefits

Examine, without charge, at the Plan administrator's office and at other specified locations, all Plan documents, including insurance contracts and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan, including insurance contracts and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan descriptions. The administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

Receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit plan. The people who operate your Plan, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries.

No one, including your employer or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied or ignored in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of Plan documents or the latest annual report and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a Federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the administrator. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or Federal court.

In addition, if you disagree with the Plan's decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a domestic relations order or a medical child support order, you may file suit in a Federal court.

If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court.

The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees.

If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees; for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance with Your Questions

If you have any questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

FUTURE OF THE PLAN

It is hoped that the Plan will be continued indefinitely, but Lumen Technologies reserves the right to change or terminate the Plan in the future. Any such action would be taken only after careful consideration.

The Board of Directors of Lumen Technologies shall be empowered to amend or terminate the Plan or any benefit under the Plan at any time.
